Featured Flutist

Jasmine Choi is known for her virtuosity and her refined musicianship. She has performed across the globe in a variety of genres from classical solo, chamber and orchestral to experimental, jazz and pop. She is formerly principal flute with the Vienna Symphony and associate principal flute with the Cincinnati Symphony. She has made her own flute arrangements of major works including the Mendelssohn and Tchaikovsky Violin Concertos and she has premiered more than 10 concertos written for her. Ms. Choi has recorded several solo CDs and since the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic she has shared educational videos on YouTube for advanced flutists. She began studying piano and violin at a very young age and started playing flute at age 9. Ms. Choi's performance was featured at the 2018 Winter Olympics in PyeongChang, South Korea.
